

It is difficult to think back 40 plus years and come up with 'stories' that would be of interest to anyone but myself and the few people directly involved in the story. Suffice to say my years at St Mary's had a great influence on my life. Fr. Kennedy opened up my eyes to written word and taught me to appreciate literature of all stripes. Ron Deleskie, a fellow classmate, introduced me to classical music and opera, but best of all, St Mary's was where I met my one great friend, John Meehan. John and I have maintained this friendship for close to fifty years.

I am very proud to be able to call myself an "old St. Mary's boy".
