

Doug Leinweber Bio

Class of 1963

After graduating from Brockville, I went on to St. Gerard's Novitiate at Keswick, Ontario and then to Holy Redeemer College in Windsor. After 1 ½ years I decided that the monastic life was not for me.

I returned to London, met and married Kathy Hollingworth, a nurse, from Sarnia. We have three children; Mark (now 34), Scott (now 28) and Julie (25). In my career with CN and VIA Rail, I have worked in Brantford, Kitchener, Chatham, Windsor, Kingston, Toronto and London.

I retired 5 years ago and volunteer one day per week at a golf course in London and now have two lovely granddaughters.

My wife Kathy and I travel a little: Cuba (each year), Mexico, South Africa and are planning a weeks golf vacation to the Canadian Rockies this September.

I am looking forward to meeting some of our Brockville friends and have the good fortune to, "bump into" many St. Mary's alumnis over the years. Each and everyone had a fascinating story to tell.

' God bless us all'
